Midnight Madness returns to downtown Oakville Friday night

Midnight Madness is set for Friday, July 15.

Celebrating over 30 years, it is Downtown Oakville's largest retail event of the year, drawing over 50,000 people. But it's more than a retail event, it is community spirit, live entertainment and family fun!

Join the retailers of Oakville's downtown and take in the amazing shopping deals while you stroll the streets during this incredible evening of entertainment.

There is so much for the entire family to enjoy including live free music from eight different groups. Music ranges from international with The Imbayakunas from Ecuador, to classic Rock in the form of Glory Days – the ultimate Bruce Springsteen tribute band on the Towne Square stage sponsored by Scotiabank, to The Pedestrians rocking classic Beatles and Goggins Irish Dancers on Dunn Street.

The Kings are a returning favorite – and most cherished by Oakville residents, and we have some new local talent such as great performances from The Bluesers and rising star Andrew Cole.

These and other great performers will be engaging and entertaining throughout the downtown on eight stages, starting at 7:00 pm. Stages include Lakeshore and Navy, the Towne Square, Dunn Street North & South, Reynolds Street North and South, and Lakeshore and Allan.

While listening to some great music, be sure to visit with some of the community organizations involved in this year's event.

There are over 25 participating community organizations including Rotary Clubs of Oakville, Service Canada Centre for Youth, The Oakville & Milton Humane Society, CYAN, Autism Halton, Optimists Club, the Kinsmen, Canadian Caribbean Association of Halton, Food for Life, Oakville Zonta, the Knights of Columbus and many, many more!

For the family, be sure to visit these supportive community organizations with your children, and enjoy the games and prizes all in one evening!

Don't miss the fun, be sure to take the FREE Shuttle Bus Service every 15 minutes from the Oakville GO Station to Downtown Oakville-5:30 pm to 12:15 am.

If you do drive remember we offer FREE parking after 6 pm - just one more reason to make your visit to beautiful Downtown Oakville.

The Downtown Oakville Business Improvement Area is a non-profit organization that represents over 400 Oakville businesses located between Allan, Church, Robinson, and Navy Street.

The Downtown Oakville BIA is completely funded by those businesses. Its primary mission is to promote and enhance Downtown Oakville and to make improvements to municipally owned properties.

Want to meet Johnny Winter?

North Oakville Today is giving one lucky reader and a friend the chance to meet legendary guitar player Johnny Winter before his show at the Oakville Centre for the Performing Arts on Wednesday, August 3.

Email your name and phone number to stewart@oakvilletoday.ca before 5 pm July 28. We'll contact the randomly selected winner July 29. Good luck!

Author Rocsanne Shield was at Chapters at Dorval Crossing last Saturday to sign copies of her latest novel, Save Magic City. The book tells the story of Edmund, a 13th century wizard who is banished through time for using black magic. He arrives in 2007 as an answered prayer for a woman named Leona. The corporation employing the townspeople has left, the bank foreclosures have created whole streets of empty houses, people are leaving in droves... the town is slowly dying. Can Edmund help the town survive? Save Magic City is available for sale at Chapters and at www.chapters.ca.
